

CURRICULUM

Adrian Chrobot

---

Public policy professional with substantial background in diplomacy and international affairs. 12+ years on foreign missions with projects in human rights, migrations, European affairs, public and cultural diplomacy. An innovative strategist committed to approach sensitive matters through collaborative advocacy and stakeholders engagement.

Skilled in conceptualization of programs, uniting cross-functional approaches, formulating data-driven communications and public policy strategies. Proven success in building networks and strategic partnerships with public, private and third sector. Extensive knowledge of project management, advocacy, public relations, crisis management. Strong ability of accurate analysis and building synergies.

Solid academic experience providing robust research capabilities and pedagogical skills.