

CURRICULUM

Alberto Gallego Gordon

CV Resume

Colonel Alberto Gallego Gordon, Phd. He graduated from the Spanish Air Force Academy in 1980 as a first lieutenant and a pilot. His first assignment as a pilot was at the Air Transport Wing in Zaragoza flying Hercules, where he had the opportunity to perform many international flights both in logistics and humanitarian missions. He also received training as a navigator with the United States Air Force. Along his military career he has been in several other assignments: Blue Beret in the United Nations mission for the independence of Namibia; Teacher at the German Air Force Officers Academy in German; Attaché at the Spanish Embassy in Germany; Deputy Director at the Spanish Non Commissioned Officers Academy; Chief Operational Plans Branch at the NATO Combined Air Operations Center in Ital; Commander of the Paratrooper School at the Alcantarilla Air Force Base (Murcia, Sp). After leaving the Base in 2013, he passed into the Air Reserve and immediately thereafter he started as a teacher at the UCAM in a Master in Security and Criminology and in International Relations.