

CURRICULUM

Donette Murray

CV Resume

Prof Donette Murray BA (Hons), PgCUT, LLM, DPhil. She is Senior Lecturer at the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst, UK. She has also served as a Political Advisor in the Balkans and as a Senior Defence Advisor in Afghanistan. A Fellow of the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe (SHAPE), she holds a doctorate from the University of Ulster and an LLM in International Law from the University of Maastricht. Donette is the author of four books on US foreign policy and the co-editor of volumes on contemporary power, war amongst the people, fragile and failing states, and violent non-state actors. Her most recent publications include 'Flawed and Unnecessary: the 'Unwilling or Unable' Doctrine Pertaining to States' Use of Force in Self-Defence Against Non-State Actors', published in The Hague Yearbook of International Law, and 'Trump's Grand Strategy: 'A Large Bowl Of Spaghetti Bolognese Dumped And Spread On A White Canvas'', in Clive Jones et al, Grand Strategy, a forthcoming publication by CUP.