

CURRICULUM

Pablo Salvador Blesa Aledo

pblesa@ucam.edu

Vice Rector of International Relations and Communication and Dean of Social Sciences and Communication at UCAM. He got his Degree in Communication and Political Sciences and his Master in International Relations and Communication Sciences at Universidad Complutense de Madrid, a Master Degree in International Relations bestowed by the Diplomatic School of Spain and a Master in International Relations and Cooperation by the International Relations Society. He continued his specialization in International Relations at the University of Ottawa (Canada) and the University of Strasbourg (France) and got his PhD at UCAM. Pablo Blesahas been visiting professor at The University of Wroclaw (Poland); The University of Siena (Italy); Benedictine of Chicago (USA), Loyola University Chicago (USA), Berkeley University California (USA), Catholic University of Eichstätt (Germany), Moscow School of Political Studies (Russian Federation), Liverpool University (United Kingdom) Strasbourg University (France), the European Council (EU) and the Western European Union (WEU). He has published several research articles and academic books.

