CV

Prof. Rainer Gehrig dedicates his academic and professional activity to the deeper comprehension of the links between development and religion, especially on the margins of our society and with vulnerable groups. After the studies of theology in Freiburg and the practical training, he worked in the pastoral field of post industrial worker neighbourhoods in Mannheim with a strong focus on Youth Organizations, families and volunteer support (1996-2001). From 2001 to 2004 he engaged in pastoral and organizational planning and served as trainer for church community development. In 2002, he combined pastoral work with research activity as a research assistant at the first worldwide catholic Centre for Christian Social Work and Charity Sciences (University of Freiburg), founded in 1925. In 2004 he moved to Murcia, and collaborated with the founding process of the International Institute of Charity and Volunteering John Paul II at UCAM as academic coordinator. In 2005, these activities led to the Official Master program of Social Development, where now he is the director. Every year he collaborates with the organization of the UCAM Congress on Charity and Volunteering (February). Since 2011 Member of the Observatory on Social Exclusion (University of Murcia).

He was guest speaker in different conferences on charity and development:

2008 in Taiwan, 2012 Kinshasa (Kongo) at the Meeting of the African Bishops Conference, 2016 Vatican City at the International Congress on Charity.
