

CURRICULUM

Nikoleta Paraskevi Chalanouli

---

CV Resume

Nikoleta Chalanouli is a dual-qualified lawyer with the Bar Associations of Athens (Greece) and Madrid (Spain). She is a European Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE) accredited lawyer. Ms. Chalanouli has advised international organisations, private actors and national public institutions in Europe for more than 10 years. Her experience extends from European Union law to International an Operational law, having provided legal advice during several NATO-led operations, including to the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) in Afghanistan, Operation Unified Protector in Libya, as well as operations in the Balkans. Ms. Chalanouli completed her law studies in the Law School of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, the University of Paris II, Panthéon-Assas with a specialisation in Public International Law, and the Université Libre de Brussels with a specialisation in European Union Law. She has attended and has lectured courses in the International Institute of Humanitarian Law in Sanremo in Italy, the NATO School in Germany, and the Judge Advocate General (JAG) Army School in the United States.