

UCAM
UNIVERSIDAD
CATÓLICA DE MURCIA

Master's Degree in Tolerance Studies and Global Peace

Mode
On Campus

Duration
1 academic year

Credits
60 ECTS

Place
40

Campus
Murcia

Language
English

Welcome to UCAM

UCAM Universidad Católica San Antonio de Murcia is a private university founded in 1996 with a clear mission: to equip students with the knowledge and skills necessary to serve society, to contribute to the expansion of human knowledge through research as an integral part of the development of man and mankind, and to participate in the mission of the Catholic Church through religious dialogue in education and culture.

Preparing peacebuilders and tolerance advocates

The program introduces a wide range of academic and practical skills for you to obtain a Master Degree in Tolerance Studies and Global Peace (MATP).

Higher education, one of the main pillars of Tolerance and Peace, should continuously be transformed through the development of quality programs, especially at the postgraduate levels. This program intends to address the needs of the society from various vantage points such as economic, cultural, and community engagement perspectives.

Learning and researching about Tolerance and Peace, as a new discipline in higher education, has become vital to nurturing and to equipping graduates with innovative knowledge and skills, and to meet the community's needs to realize harmony and stability. Without tolerance, peace of societies cannot be maintained, acceptance of and solidarity with each others cannot be cultivated.

Directors:

Dr. Pablo Salvador Blesa Aledo
Dr Basma El Zein

About GCTP

The idea of “The Global Council for Tolerance and Peace” began as a window or an international platform dedicated for tolerance and spreading peace and noble human objectives. It is an international organization that relies on democratic principles and takes from the International Law and Covenants its own work system, in order to reach true and sustained peace for humankind through spreading the culture of tolerance between countries. It also build the policy of soft power which some countries understood its importance and started calling for it worldwide.

Why study Tolerance Studies and Global Peace at UCAM?

UCAM's main objective is to train the best professionals, people with a vocation for service who are capable of improving the society in which they live.

- Multicultural environment. The amount of international students who come to study at our university keeps growing more and more every year. Our students come from 115 different countries, making our campus a very multicultural one.
- Prestigious teaching staff. The Master in Tolerance Studies and Global Peace has an esteemed faculty of prestigious professors from both UCAM and the Global Council. These esteemed professors bring a wealth of expertise from various disciplines, ensuring that students receive a well-rounded education.
- Scholarships available. This program offers a certain percentage of scholarships to support and empower individuals who are passionate about making a positive impact in their communities and fostering a more inclusive and harmonious world.
- The campus. The campus' top class infrastructure, its labs, and studios allied with the practical subjects will get students ready to put the acquired knowledge into action.

Student Profile

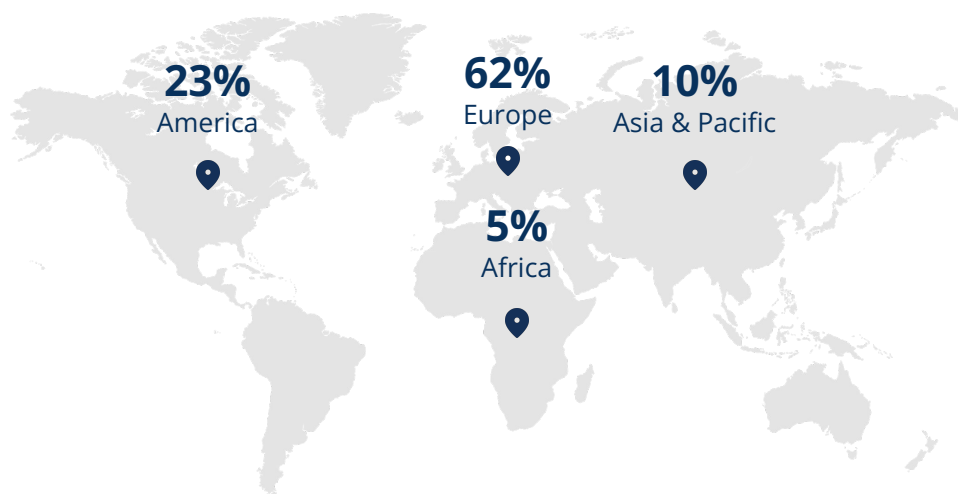

The program is directed at professionals in the areas of Human and Social Sciences, Education, Economics, Administration, Communication, and other related fields.

The master in Tolerance Studies and Global Peace is designed for those who are interested in deepening their understanding of the main themes of the program, willing to explore both theoretical and practical approaches across the disciplines. It enables students who wish to develop specific competencies related to international peacekeeping efforts to expand their knowledge and understanding.

 +22.000 students

 115 nationalities

 14% international students

Scholarships

This master program offers 15 academic scholarships. All requirements should be submitted before June 30th 2023 with the requirements as the following:

REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor's degree (GPA 3.0/4.0. or 8/10)
- B2 English Proficiency
- A Short Essay around the issue of Tolerance and Peace.
- A Curriculum Vitae or Resume
- An Academic Transcript
- A Motivation Letter
- Two Reference Letters

The Scholarship Application Evaluation Committee considers a number of key evaluation criteria, as the following:

- Country of origin
- Academic Performance
- Candidate special Conditions
- Interest in the field of Tolerance and Peace
- Career Objectives

This Master Degree enables its graduates to obtain a wide range of professions and careers path in various sectors. Practical skills and theoretical knowledge obtained during this Master's allow the students to access many opportunities, not only in private sectors and sectoral industries but also in international and public institutions/organizations.

Upon the successful completion of the program, the graduates are qualified for the following career path:

- Human Rights Officer, United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights
- Legal Advocate (poor, refugees, women, civil rights)
- International Negotiator
- Minister
- Coordinator for Peacebuilding
- Governmental Advisor
- Public Advocate/Activist
- Media Critic/Specialist
- Community Development Organizer
- Regional Monitor (e.g., for Human Rights)

What will I learn?

Program goals

The aim of this program is to provide students with a strong theoretical foundation, blended with practical application to enhance students' effectiveness in the areas of tolerance and peacekeeping efforts.

Knowledge Areas

- Communication
- Innovation & Creativity
- Dialogue
- Conflict Transformation
- Critical Thinking
- Conflict Analysis
- Influencing and Affecting Change Empowerment
- Community Engagement

Curriculum

MODULES

Subject	Type	ECTS
Introduction to Tolerance and Peace Studies	Compulsory	6
Intercultural and Interreligious Dialogue	Compulsory	6
Anthropology and Culture	Compulsory	6
Conflict Transformation and Peace Building	Compulsory	6
Public International Law, Human Rights and International Organization	Compulsory	6
Ethics and Global Governance	Compulsory	6
Research Methods in the Social Science	Compulsory	6
International Migration and Refugees Law	Compulsory	3
Public Diplomacy	Compulsory	3
Master's Final Thesis	Compulsory	12
Total credits		60

Discover Murcia

Experience the true Spanish lifestyle and discover Murcia as a cultural melting pot, in which international students are especially welcome

Located in the southeast of Spain, the Region of Murcia is characterized by mild temperatures and long hours of daylight. Here, just as if it were a small continent of its own, a variety of cultural activities and diverse flora and fauna offer endless possibilities for leisure time enjoyment.

Beautiful beaches, rural areas, historical cities, rich traditions, enchanting folklore and spirited culture mix together to form a dynamic and attractive living environment. The region is a synonym of warmth, friendliness and security! The soul of Spanish culture can be found throughout Murcia's city center, beautiful squares, historic buildings, museums and university campuses. As the capital city of the region, the network of services, supported by modern infrastructure, guarantees a high quality of life.

Admissions

This program has one intake each year in October. Due to the high demand of this program, we strongly recommend starting the application process as soon as possible.

Entry requirements

As this program is taught in English, it is necessary for students to demonstrate their English language proficiency. All students must have a B2 level of English to enter this program.

How to apply

Prepare the following documents and send them via email to admissions@ucam.edu and UCAM Enrollment Advisor in your country:

- Language proficiency certificate from this list. Any other English certificate will be evaluated individually. For students who completed the bachelor degree from the US, UK or any English-speaking countries, language proficiency certificate is not required. For any other countries, UCAM also accepts letters from the university certifying that the medium/language of instruction is English.
- Scanned biopage of your valid passport.
- Bachelor's academic transcript and degree certificate
- Statement of Purpose/Motivational Letter
- Curriculum Vitae

More information

We understand that choosing the right program is a very important decision for you. Our delegates will provide you personalized attention and assistance for any concerns you may have before making the big decision of submitting your application.

enquiries@ucam.edu

+34 968 278 883

UCAM

UNIVERSIDAD CATÓLICA
DE MURCIA

Universidad Católica San Antonio de Murcia

Campus de Los Jerónimos

135 Guadalupe 30107 - Murcia, España

enquiries@ucam.edu • (+34) 968 27 88 83

Skype: ucam.international

