- Any documentation/ Evidence of such impact, from the student or his/her legal guardians (at least an electronic version):
 - Cash movement report downloaded from bank account for the last months.
 - Letter from the employer; payrolls that reflect the variation in income; documentation proving the unemployment situation or reduction of labour income affecting the family unit due to the Conflict.
 - Documentation that proves the closure, suspension, or worsening of the business or company activity due to the Conflict.
 - Death or disability certificate of parents, guardians, spouse or partner, or other direct family members as a consequence of the Conflict.

7. The deadline for the processing and approval of this call:

- Once the requirements have been submitted, the Regional Heads or International Marketing Deputy Director will interview the applicant.
- The recommendation and comments will be sent to the Director of International Development for final approval.
- All scholarship applications will be processed on a first come first serve basis.

- Applications submitted 2 months before the program start date will no longer be accepted.
- Scholarship approval and/or rejection will be confirmed within approximately 1 month.

8. The Conflict scholarships and grants in this call are incompatible with those provided by other bodies during the academic year in any of their forms, as well as with other benefits of the same purpose that may be received from other entities or persons, whether public or private. No student may receive more than one scholarship, even if he/she is undertaking several studies at UCAM at the same time.

9. The presentation of the application form in a pdf file signed by the interested party will mean the acceptance of the rules and requirements of the call:

A. He/she is aware that the inaccuracy, omission or falseness of the data and circumstances declared will result in the rejection or revocation of the scholarship, incurring legal responsibility as appropriate, in addition to any disciplinary measures that may be agreed upon by the UCAM Disciplinary Commission.

B. The applicant authorizes receiving information about the resolution via email.

C. He/she is aware of the regime of incompatibilities of this call and in case of obtaining another scholarship or aid from any Administration or public or private entity, the student must inform the UCAM Scholarship Section.

D. In compliance with the provisions of Law 15/1999 on Personal Data Protection, the information provided will become part of the AIDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS corresponding to the automated file of STUDENTS in order to manage their scholarship file. The student has the right to access this information, rectify it or cancel it, by contacting the address of the entity responsible for the processing, Fundación Universitaria San Antonio, at Campus Los Jerónimos, S/N, 30107 Guadalupe (Murcia). This entity guarantees the adoption of appropriate measures to ensure the confidential processing of all the data.

10. Supervision of compliance with the purpose of the scholarship. To this end, it will be understood that the scholarship has not been assigned for this purpose when one of the following situations occurs, and the scholarship will be refunded:

1. Cancellation of matriculation.
2. In the event of discovering that there was concealment or falsification of data in its granting or that there is an incompatibility with other benefits of this kind from other natural or legal persons. They will also be refunded if it is proven that they have been granted to students who did not meet any of the established requirements, or who do not properly accredit them.

11. A collegiate body for the selection of scholarship holders will be set up to study the applications submitted and to select potential scholarship holders. This body will examine the applications submitted and will ask the interested party, if necessary, to correct any defects or to submit the required documents within ten days of receiving the request, indicating that, if he or she does not do so, the request will be deemed withdrawn.

The Selection Committee will check that the applications submitted meet the general requirements for granting. Either of the scholarships may not be awarded if candidates do not meet the requirements described in the previous points. The Commission also reserves the right to modify or remove the scholarship component of this call in response to unforeseen circumstances.

Scholarship applicants who are denied this right may appeal to the Governing Council of this University within 7 calendar days. If the appeal is denied, no further complaint will be possible.
